Schola singing at Mrs O'Gara's 100th Birthday Celebration Mass. (Wife of one of the past Headmasters of Loyola.)

Well, our second week back has certainly been a busy one! We held our first mass of the year which was particularly special as so many of the staff took part. We also thank Fr Michael who uplifted our souls with his enthusiastic homily about the importance of our names. How many of you now know the meaning of your name? The certificates have also started to appear and it was wonderful to see a LAMDA award for Sonny (with distinction!) and other musical examinations passed. On Wednesday we welcomed some photographers to the school who took so many photographs and interviewed some of the boys about life at Loyola. I have to say that the feedback was that all of our boys are extremely polite and enthusiastic about school life. I am so excited to see the end result! I have a feeling that some of them will be appearing on the school Twitter or Facebook very soon. We wish Figures a safe and enjoyable time in Kingswood and look forward to hearing all about their adventures. Mrs K Anthony

Twelfth Night by The Young Shakespeare Company

KS2 had the privilege of watching the Young Shakespeare Company present Twelfth Night yesterday. The comic play definitely had the boys laughing, especially when Viola, disguised as a young man Cesario, finds herself in some precarious situations. A huge thank you to Rudiment Literacy Monitors: Guy, Alex, Alexander and Julius, who organised and led the event for the younger boys.

'Some are born great, some achieve greatness and some have greatness thrust upon 'em.'
(Malvolio, Act 2 Scene 5)

As a school, each term, we will focus on different values and qualities which will help us become aware of how we can make the world we live in a better place.

Our focus for September is :

"to understand our responsibilities and our rights"

Pupils who have demonstrated that they are upholding their responsibilities of being a Loyola boy are :

Max C-P (Els) : for working to the best of his ability in his lesson. Spotted by : Mrs Tidmarsh Zeyd (Rec) Encouraging others – he looked at another boy's cutting work and said to him, "Your work's great!" Spotted by : Mrs Quirk

See our school website, Facebook and Twitter for more photos and news from the week!

We have had the start of many of our clubs (Get Creative, football trials, Schola, Choir and Rugby) and I know that there are more due to start.

A record 72 Summer Reading Challenge Certificates were presented at school this week! That's also 72 Golden Books in one day!

Did you know?

School Fact : Did you know that magical things happen in Loyola Preparatory School? Finn the book fairy has taken up residency in our Library and last year, aliens crash landed in our playground! If you don't believe us, check out the newspaper report: http://www.guardian-series.co.uk/news/15643116.SpaceShip_crash_lands_in_primary_school/

Fun Fact : Did you know that ennecontakaienneagon is actually a word in the English language? (And you thought pronouncing supercalifragilisticexpialidocious was difficult?). In fact, the meaning of the word is just as bizarre as the word itself: it's a shape with ninety-nine sides.

A message from Mr Nicholson.....

We have had the trip of a lifetime in St Petersburg.
Personal tours of three major palaces, a trip on the canals and rivers, and as a climax Swan Lake in Tchaikovsky's own city in Catherine the Great's personal theatre. We would like to thank all who contributed to making it possible.
